Entrance Hymn
No. 505
Praise thou the Lord

Praise thou the Lord,
O my soul, now praise Him!
His praise continue until death!
While I the pathways of earth am treading,
God shall be praised with ev'ry breath.
My soul and body He did give
and waits my praise from morn till eve.
Praise thou the Lord!
Praise thou the Lord!

2. Happy, yes happy, are they for ever whose help the God of Jacob is,
who hath created the earth and heaven,
the sea and all that therein is.
Our God is ruler of the world,
truth's banner He hath e'er unfurl'd
Praise thou the Lord!
Praise thou the Lord!

3. Praise, O ye people,
the name most glorious
of Him who reigns, Almighty King!
All should unite in one holy chorus,
to God the hymn of joy to bring.
O Zion with the heav'nly host,
praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost.
Praise thou the Lord!
Praise thou the Lord!

Communion Hymn

No. 537

Redeemed, I am blessed in Jesus

Redeemed, I am blessed in Jesus,
redeemed thro' the blood of the Lamb.
Redeemed thro' His godly compassion,
how happy in Jesus I am!

Cho.        Redeemed, redeemed!
              Redeemed by the blood of the Lamb.
              Redeemed, redeemed!
              How happy in Jesus I am!

2.        Redeemed, I am blessed in Jesus,
              I cannot find words to express
              how sweet is His heavenly presence, how greatly His love doth me bless!
3.        I'll serve at the feet of the Saviour,
              with fervent sincerity bring the praise of my heart to the Father,
              my mouth of His love the while sing!

Communion Hymn
No. 544
With pure delight

- With pure delight and bliss o'erflowing,
I sing with heartfelt joy and zest.
I, too, found Him, my Rock and Sunshine,
I, too, now rest on Jesus' breast,
I, too, now rest on Jesus' breast.
2. He drew me with His love and patience;
with tender voice did me pursue:
"Come, child, you may no longer tarry;
come, peace and rest I give to you;
come, peace and rest I give to you."
3. Thro' eyes of faith I saw my Saviour,
the Lamb, a sacrifice for me:
How in the night of death He suffered and whispered: "This I did for thee,"
and whispered: "This I did for thee."
4. My sinful heart, it broke and softened and I myself to Jesus gave.
Now have I peace, am free from suff'ring;
great joy is mine, for He doth save;
great joy is mine, for He doth save.

Communion Hymn For The Departed
No. 632

Shall I meet you at the fountain

Shall I meet you at the fountain,
in that glorious better land?
Does your soul thirst for its water and its blessed heav'nly strand?
Joyous voices shall resound there at the spring where saints have trod.
Shall I meet you, shall I greet you,
there before the throne of God?

Cho. *I rejoice that at the fountain
where the living waters flow,
I shall gather with the blessed,
lasting peace and joy to know.*

2. Shall I meet you at the fountain,
joined with those who've gone before?
Clothed in bright and shining raiment
ne'er to part for evermore.

Heav'nly anthems shall be heard there,
hymns of joy and songs of praise!
Will you strive to join the chorus
with the saints of bygone days?

3. Shall I meet you at the fountain,
meet you at the Father's throne?
Will my anxious eyes then find you,
counted too, with Jesus' own?
For the poor and for the humble precious living water flows;
may it ever be your portion
to receive what Christ bestows!
