

A New Chapter: Welcoming Apostle Ganpat Singh

20 November 2024

We are overjoyed to announce the new chapter added to our journey of faith in India. On November 3, 2024, in Cambodia, our beloved Chief Apostle Jean-Luc Schneider ordained Apostle Ganpat Singh as an Apostle for India. He will be entrusted with the care and guidance of our North Indian congregations.

Apostle Ganpat's journey is one of unwavering faith and resilience. He was born on March 3, 1988, in a devoted New Apostolic family as the youngest of seven siblings. Deeply inspired by his father, a District Evangelist, he began to serve God from a very young age.

Apostle Ganpat's dedication and calling were clear from the start. Ordained as a Deacon in 2003 and a Priest in 2004, he continued to follow his passion for serving the Lord, even in the face of financial hardships.

"During my studies, I started doing private jobs due to my family's financial struggles. I completed my post-graduation (M.Com.) in 2011. I was studying and working while continuing to do God's work", shares Apostle Ganpat.

Apostle Ganpat married Kalyani Singh, a sister in faith, in 2019. Today, he resides in Bareilly, Uttar Pradesh, with her and their two children. His journey of faith has led him to this moment of great responsibility and joy, and we are grateful for it.

Let us unite in prayer and support as Apostle Ganpat takes on this new role. Welcome, Apostle Ganpat Singh! We look forward to the path ahead.
